POW-WOW

d By

R CLASS

GH SCHOOL

achusetts

Four years ago our tribe of Indians embarked on the quest for knowledge. In our little canoe which represents Amesbury High School we have paddled through rapids and still waters down the river of learning until now we have reached the open sea of life.

The 1950 Pow-wow is the log in which is written the account of our journey. It records our joys and sorrows, our successes and failures.

In future years when our canoe voyage seems just a vague memory we hope that this book will recall to the crew the happy days that belonged to us in Amesbury High School.

DEDICATION

KENT WALKER

1900-1949

From 1925 until his death in 1949 Mr. Walker served on the faculty of Amesbury High School as a teacher of science and as sub-master.

Many of us were privileged to be in the classroom with him. All of us were under his friendly guidance.

Therefore, in appreciation of twenty-four years of unselfish service, we, the Class of 1950, dedicate our Pow-wow to Mr. Kent Walker, our teacher and friend.

Leola Allard

LOLA

"For thy sake, tobacco, I would do anything but die."

Lola has that "get up and go" personality which everyone admires. Her vivacity was shown in her cheerleading at the football games. Lola plans to train at North Shore Baby's Hospital.

General. Basketball 1, 2, 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Chorus 1, 2, 3; Cheerleader 3, 4; Dance Committees 1, 2, 3; Junior Night Cast; School Newspaper 3, 4; Lunchroom Duty 1; Office Assistant 3; Beta Tri-Hi-Y 4; Canteen Committee 1, 2, 3; Dramatic Club 3

Floyd Ashe

FLOYD

"From the crown of his head to the sole of his foot, he is all mirth!"

Floyd is an ardent Salisburyite, who, when not bowling or performing acrobatic feats at Salisbury A. C. may be seen "scurrying" to his classes.

General. Baseball 3; Hockey 3; Glee Club 2, 3; Chorus 2; Dance Committees 3; Junior Night Committee

John Babine

JOHNNIE

"Patience — and shuffle the cards."

We will always remember Johnnie as a grand fellow with the brightest red hair. He has won many laurels for his outstanding work as quarterback for the Powow Indians.

General. Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees 3; Junior Night Committee; Bowling League 3; Lunchroom Duty 1, 2; Hi-Y 4; Senior Boys' Assembly; Senior Play Cast.

Sally Barnard

SAL

"The secret of success is constancy to purpose."

Sally can usually be seen dashing in or out of classrooms, delivering messages or collecting papers. Our future medical secretary delights in playing the piano in her leisure hours

Preparatory. Chorus 1; Junior Music Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Night Committee; Honor Roll 1, 2, 3, 4; Pow-wow Staff; Office Assistant 4; Mathematics Assembly 3; Junior Music Club Assembly 2, 3; History Department Assembly 3; Allied Youth 2, Senior Play Committee

Joanne Bartlett

JOANNE

"The apparel oft proclaims the woman."

Joanne will always be remembered as the girl with the black, black hair, beautiful figure, and lovely clothes. Although happy-go-lucky, she has proven well her executive ability as a class officer

Preparatory. Basketball 4; Glee Club 1, 2, Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Night Committee, Class Officer 3, 4, Canteen Committee 1, 2; Senior Play Committee

Mary Boxter

DUSTY

"A kind and gentle heart has she "

Mary is noted for her ability to listen, and for her immediate response to a person's mood, whether happy or serious

Preparatory. Chorus 1, 2; Dance Committees 2, Honor Roll 1, 3, 4; Allied Youth 2

Edmond Belanger

EDDIE

"Laughter is the joyous, universal ever-green of life."

Eddie is well known for his turtle-neck sweaters, his arm wrestling, and his friendly attitudes toward the females. His shortness of stature by no means reflects the extent of his abilities.

General. Football 1, 2; Glee Club 2, 3, 4, Chorus 1, 2; Bowling League 1, 2

Marion Belanger

MARION

"Take life with ease."

Marion is a grand girl with a host of friends. She thinks school isn't the best place but it will do. Her ambition is to graduate.

Commercial. Basketball 1, 2, 3, Chorus 1, 2; Band 3

Juliette Bergeron

JULIETTE

"A sweet attractive kind of grace — a full assurance given by her looks."

Working with Mr. Roy, Julie is kept busy during pre-school moments writing tardy slips. She has a dark beauty and appearance of confidence which are decidedly appealing.

General. Chorus 1, 2; Dance Committees 1, 2, 3; Office Assistant 3, 4, Beta Tri-Hi-Y 2, Senior Play Committee

Dora Bernabei

RUTHIE

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Ruthie is always able to take a joke and to tell one. She is a hard working student and is planning on being a "Lady in White"

General. Chorus 1, 2, 4; Dance Committees 1, 4; Pow-wow Staff

Paricio Berry

"The world is so full of a number of things."

Pat is a very conscientious student. She loves to knit and to skate. She does excellent art work, samples of which you can see in our yearbook.

General. Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees 2, 4; Honor Roll 2, 3, 4, Pow-wow Staff

Anne Blois

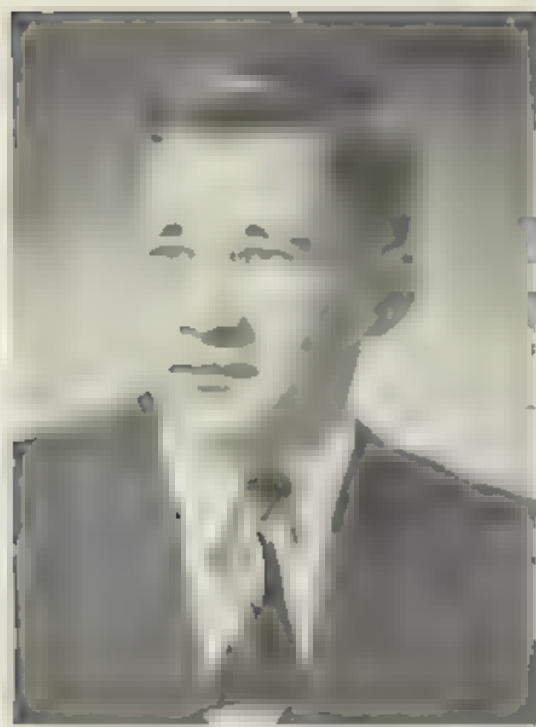

ANNIE

"One's eyes are what one is."

If you're looking for a very attractive blonde with personality plus, Anne is your girl. Not the least of her many accomplishments is the skillful maneuvering of her father's Ford. Nursing is Anne's ambition.

Preparatory. Mathematics Assembly 3, Chorus 1; Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4, Beta Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Thrift Club 1, 2

Richard Blaisdell

"Silence is the most perfect herald of joy."

Dick would rather play basketball than do almost anything else. As a player on "Tink's Tanks," he kept the team in the thick of the intra-mural fight

General. Basketball

Dorothy Bodwell

DOTTIE

"The magic of her face."

None of us will forget Dottie's sweet personality and gentle manner. Her tireless efforts as vice-president for three years helped the class of "50" to be the best ever

Preparatory. Glee Club 1, 2, Chorus 1, 2, Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Night Committee, Honor Roll 1, 2, 3, 4, Home Room Officer 2, Class Officer 1, 2, 3, Pow-wow Staff

Roland Bodwell

ROLAND

"None name him but to praise him."

As our class president, Rolie has worked diligently. The appreciation of all who know him has been the reward for his loyalty, spirit, and determination

General. Football 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4, Junior Night Committee, Home Room Officer 2, 4; Class Officer 4; Student Council 1, 2, 3; Lunch-room Duty 4; Pow-wow Staff

Normand Bourgeois

NORM

"Nothing succeeds like success."

Normand can either be seen jerking sodas at Alec's or playing western music on his guitar. Norm is thinking of joining the Navy when he finishes school. Smooth sailing!

General. Harmonica Club 3

William Boyle

BILL

"A carefree heart is the foundation of happiness."

Billy, always carefree, is, nevertheless an excellent student. We were all happy to learn that he was the winner of the 1949 Good Sportsmanship Award for football.

Robert Cote

BOBBY

"Self-confidence is the first requisite to great undertakings."

Although Bobby has only been with us during our senior year, he has added zest to many of our classes by offering stimulating contributions of the class discussions

Practical Arts,

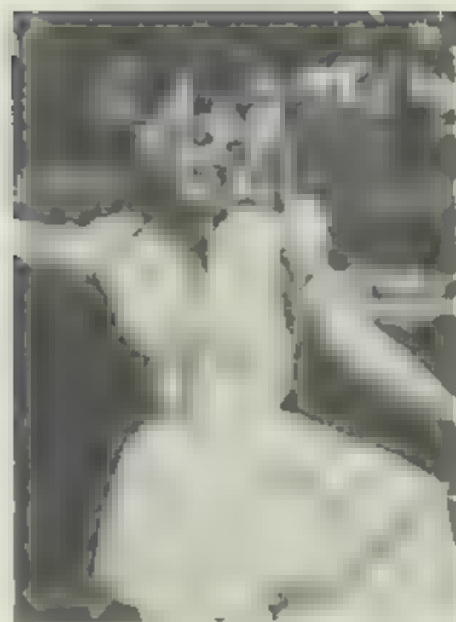

Joan Crossman

"Not skill but art obtains the prize."

Joan is on the art staff of the year-book. Her artistic sense has found expression in school dramatics. After graduation she plans to develop her talent further in the field of dress designing.

Home Economics. Glee Club 1, 3, Chorus 1, 2, 3, Dance Committees 1, 4, Junior Night Cast, Pow-wow Staff

Laurel Dickens

"Merrily, merrily, shall I go."

Laurel has a happy-go-lucky attitude which accompanies his ability to crack jokes on almost any occasion. He has already reached his first goal in life as a member of the A.H.S. hockey team.

General. Football Manager 4, Basketball Manager 3; Baseball Manager 3, Hockey 3, 4; Chorus 1; Junior Night Cast, Senior Play Cast; School Newspaper 3; Lunchroom Duty 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 4; Senior Boys' Assembly

Richard Dickens

DICK

"Work alone is noble."

Richard is noted for his gay-colored shirts. Although delivering newspapers on his bicycle occupies most of his time he enjoys playing both football and basketball.

General Chorus 1

Alvin Doherty

DUCKY

"Tis not what man does which exalts him, but what man would do."

Ducky takes life as it comes and enjoys it. As an officer of the Boys' Glee Club, he leads the boys in perfect harmony with his sterling voice.

General. Glee Club 4, Chorus 1; Dance Committees 4; Lunchroom Duty 4; Senior Assembly.

Arlene Doherty

CHUNKY

"Music is well said to be speech of angels."

Arlene may appear quiet and conservative, but outside of school she is full of fun. She's one more of the singing Dohertys who have been active in the Glee Club.

Commercial. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Lunchroom Duty 1, 2, 4.

Dorothy Dollen

"Dependability is the strength of friendship."

Dotty's seriousness of purpose and quiet manner have made her one of the most respected and well-liked members of our class. She is following the family tradition in becoming a secretary.

Commercial. Dance Committees 2, 4, Chorus 1, 2; Honor Roll 1, 2, 3; Home Room Officer 1, 3, Beta Tri-Hi-Y 2; Senior Play Committee.

Robert Dronsfield

BOB

"I am very fond of the company of ladies."

Bob can most often be seen cruising around in his '34 Ford with members of the fairer sex. It is his intention to join the Air Force

General. Football 1, 2; Baseball 1, Glee Club 1, 4; Chorus 1; Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Night Cast

Ellie Eaton

ELLIE

"Silence is deep as eternity."

Ellie is very quiet and very small. She has capably assisted Mr. Roy in organizing and recording tardy and absence slips. After graduating, she expects to go to a secretarial school

Commercial Chorus 1, 2; Honor Roll 1, 3

Emery Eaton

EMERY

"Genius must be born and never can be taught."

Diligence, perseverance and good nature seem to be Emery's watchwords. Although a person of unusual brilliance, he never hesitated to share his knowledge with others

Preparatory. Senior Play Cast; Discussion Club 4; Honor Roll 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1; Junior Night Cast; Home Room Officer 1, 2, 3; Student Council 1, 2, 4; Pow-wow Staff; French Club 3, 4.

Barbara Faulkingham

"Never idle a moment, but thrifty and thoughtful of others"

If you know Barb, you like her; if you don't you're missing something. She graces J. J. Newberry's jewelry counter in her spare time, and some day will make a fine secretary.

Commercial Tennis Club 2; Senior Play Committees; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4, Dance Committees 2, 3, Thrift Club 3 Pow-wow Staff

Herbert Fish

HERB

"Up in the air so blue"

Herb seems to be one of the quiet type, but beneath his reserved manner he is full of pep. As a member of the Navy Air Force he will become Amesbury's first flying Fish!

General, Football 1; Chorus 1

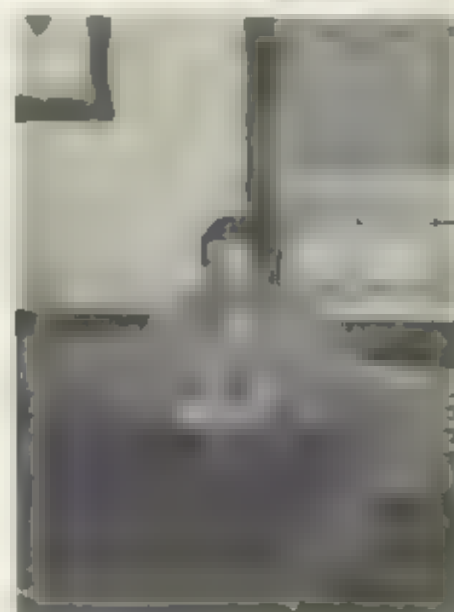

Carl Fowler

FAT

"Laugh and be fat"

Carl comes from "the beach" where he has plenty of opportunity to exhibit his hunting talents. He is undecided about the future but is giving quite a bit of thought to joining the Navy.

General, Glee Club 1, 2, 3, Chorus 1 2 3

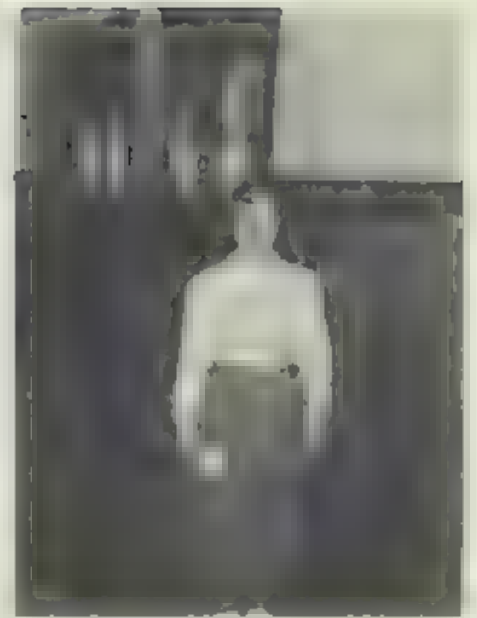

Ruth French

"Nice things come in small packages."

There may only be 4' 11" of her, but it certainly is all nice. Ruthie's a serious student, yet she knows how to have her fun. Her ambition is to be an interior decorator.

Preparatory Tennis Club 1; Senior Play Cast, Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4, Junior Night Committee; Honor Roll 1, 3, 4, Class Officer 1, 2, 3, 4, Student Council 3; Pow-wow Staff; Beta Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Henry Gamelin

HENRY

"Gentle of speech, beneficent of mind"

Claire Kelley

IRISH

"Claire danced when she was two,
As buttercups and daffodils do."

Whether it's waltzing, jitterbugging, or tap dancing, Claire masters it perfectly. Pretty and vivacious, she has won admiration and friendship, although she has been with us only two years.

Commercial. Dance Committees 3, 4, Junior Night Cast; Honor Roll 3, 4; Student Council 4; Pow-wow Staff; Office Assistant 4; Beta Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Canteen Committee 3, 4; Color Day Assembly 4, Parent's Night 4.

Irene Laflamme

RENE

"An unextinguished laughter shakes the sky."

Irene can easily be detected by her famous laugh. There is never a dull moment when she's around. Irene is undecided about her future, but her work will surely be her hobby.

Commercial, Chorus 1, 2, Dance Committees 2; Junior Night Committee; Beta Tri-Hi Y 1, 2, 3.

Michael Lago

"The captain who in triumph advances."

Good sportsmanship, an ever pleasing personality, plus ability as a leader are some of Mike's most valuable assets. We think he is one of the finest captains our football teams have had.

General, Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Chorus 1; Dance Committees 3; Junior Night Committee; Senior Assembly; Football Rally 4.

Lorraine Londry

LORRY

"Your cheery world will light the way."

Her unique giggle and snappy comebacks have livened many a class and they will be long remembered by teachers and pupils alike. Lorraine's good nature will be an asset in the business world.

Commercial, Glee Club 1, 2, Chorus 1, 2, 3; Dance Committees 1, 3; Pow-wow Staff; Thrift Club 1, 2; Freshman Assembly.

June LeMaire

JUNIE

And what is so rare as a girl like June?"

June may be described as cute and little — mostly both. She will be remembered as a lively cheerleader, and as the girl with the musical laugh.

Commercial. Glee Club 1, 2, 3.; Chorus 1, 2, 3; Cheerleader 3, 4; Home Room Officer 1, 2

Alotta Lentell

LOTTI

"Sharp's the word for her."

There is a little of Alotta. Her infectious smile, neat appearance, and friendliness are doubtless the reasons for her popularity. She plans to make U.N.H. her alma mater.

Four years ago, when the Class of 1950 were Freshmen, the Amesbury High School Band were all dressed in shabby uniforms, the lower half of which consisted of anything ranging from gray slacks to white trousers with a red stripe on the side. The jacket looked suspiciously large on some of the smaller members, while on the bigger boys there was more of a display of forearm muscles than of the red jacket. The hats were fashioned as those of army officers and the framing wire of many had burst through, making the wearers appear to be encircled by dull halos. Nevertheless, there was still a cheer from the crowd as the derelict band straggled on to the football field with battered horns blowing out "Military Escort" with gusto. Beneath the shabby uniforms surged an undercurrent of spirit that was soon to rise to the surface.

This nondescript band was active in many ways in the community. On cold November days frozen fingers played during the halves of football games. If the team were victorious, the band would again play after the game at rallies for the jubilant students in Market Square. The A. H. S. Band marched among the 28 high school bands at Newburyport during the Annual State Music Festival. It also marched in the local Armistice and Memorial Day parades, as well as at the Halloween Night Parade and night before Thanksgiving rallies. The Baton Squad assisted on most of these occasions and was a great asset to the color and pep of the band.

Various enterprises were undertaken to raise money for the benefit of the band. Tag days and booster weeks were featured. Perhaps the most successful undertaking was the magazine drive that divided the school into two competing teams, the Kigmies and the Shmoos. This project gave a good polishing to the long-tarnished spirit of the student body, as well as making about $700 for the band. Another popular method that provided much community enjoyment, as well as additional funds, was the annual band concert held each April. The band concerts have improved notably each year and probably the best program was given on April 29, 1950. After the concert, the younger set enjoyed a dance in the gym that was decorated appropriately.

Little by little the band bettered itself in all phases. Gradually, new music, new instruments, and uniforms were added. Perhaps the greatest achievement of the band was in obtaining the interest of the students and townspeople, without which it could have done little. With their cooperation it has come a long way toward its ultimate goal.

The Barretts of Wimpole Street

1st row — Alfred Moulton-Barrett, Edw. Gustav Wilson, Esq., Bella Hadley, Shirley Petersen, Elizabeth Moulton-Barrett, Catherine O'Brien, Flush, Tatt, Arabel Moulton Barrett, Esq., Carter, Henrietta Moulton-Barrett, Ruth French, Charles Moulton-Barrett, John Babine. 2nd row — George Moulton Barrett, Norman Gonthier, Henry Moulton-Barrett, Emery Eaton, Dr. Ford-Waterlow, Richard Morse, Henry Bevan, William Boyle, Robert Browning, Eugene Terry, Edward Moulton-Barrett, Robert Hanley, Capt. Surtess Cook, Esq., Dr. Chambers, Laurel Dickens, Septimus Moulton-Barrett, Philip Michaud; Octavius Moulton-Barrett, Robert Keefe

On February tenth and eleventh the Class of "50" offered a very professional presentation of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" which thrilled and delighted the audience.

Catherine O'Brien gave a splendid performance as Elizabeth Barrett. Her professional skill and dramatic ability were most remarkable.

Eugene Terry as Robert Browning came through with the dash of the persistent suitor which made his work outstanding.

The role of Edward Barrett the dictatorial father, was taken by Robert Hanley. His masterly handling of each situation evoked loudest praise.

Ruth French was perfectly cast as the assertive Henrietta who defied the iron rule of Barrett in a vigorous and effective fashion.

As Arabelle Barrett, Barbara Carter was excellent, and Robert Keefe as her stuttering brother, Octavius also turned in a fine performance.

Richard Morse and Laurel Dickens competently played the roles of attending physicians.

The work of Leo Joubert and William Boyle, both suitors of the Barrett daughters was most creditable.

Elsie Sousa, in the part of "Wilson," Elizabeth's maid, was remarkably true to character in action, poise and accent.

Bella, the flighty cousin of Elizabeth was played by Shirley Peterson whose naive coquettish manners enlivened the serious atmosphere.

Paul Gilday, Emery Eaton, John Babine, Philip Michaud and Norman Gonthier as the Barrett brothers completed the ensemble of as fine a cast AHS has seen in many a year.

The Song of the Tribe

Lyric by Carol Tuxbury

Music by Sally Barnard

The musical score is written for a choir or ensemble, featuring a treble and bass clef staff for each system. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are printed below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across notes. The music consists of several systems, each with a vocal line and a bass line. The lyrics are: 'Four years a - go we al - em - barked to seek the sea of learn - ing', 'We set out in a small ca - noe to sat - is - fy our yearn - ing', 'By ra - pids rough, through storm - y waves, we pad - dled hard and fast,', 'But still we found the gen - tle streams as we were glid - ing past.', 'Now we have earned our head dress, suc - cess - ful we must be', and 'With wam - pum belts full of learn - ing we've reached the open sea'.

Four years a - go we al - em - barked to seek the sea of learn - ing

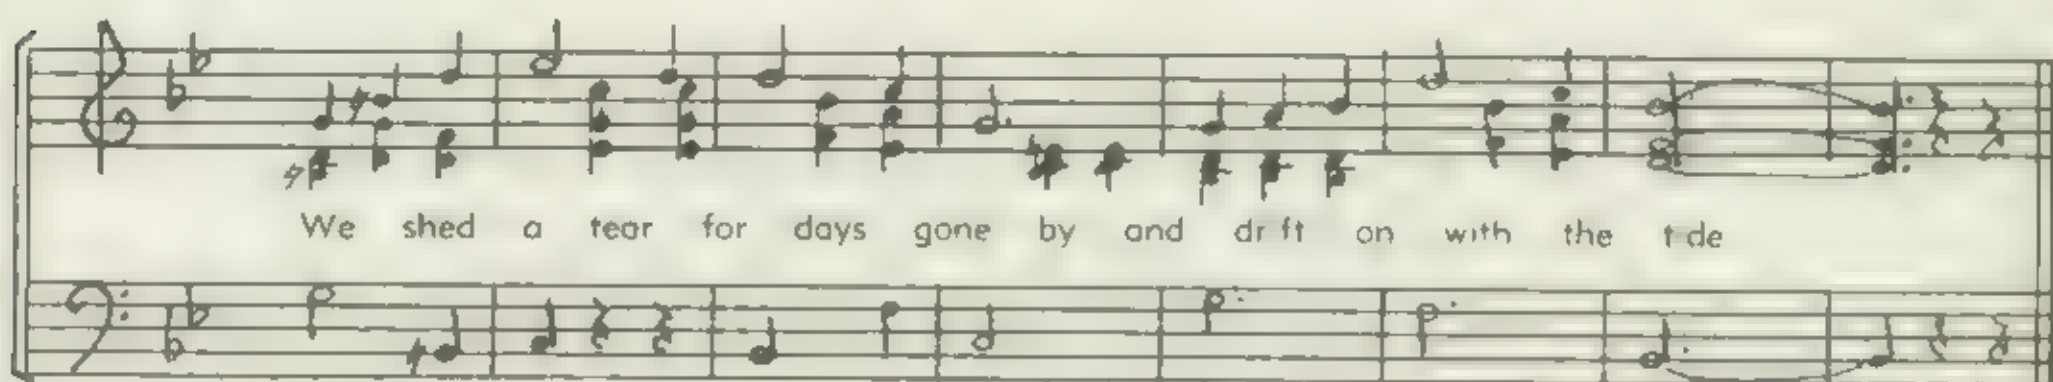

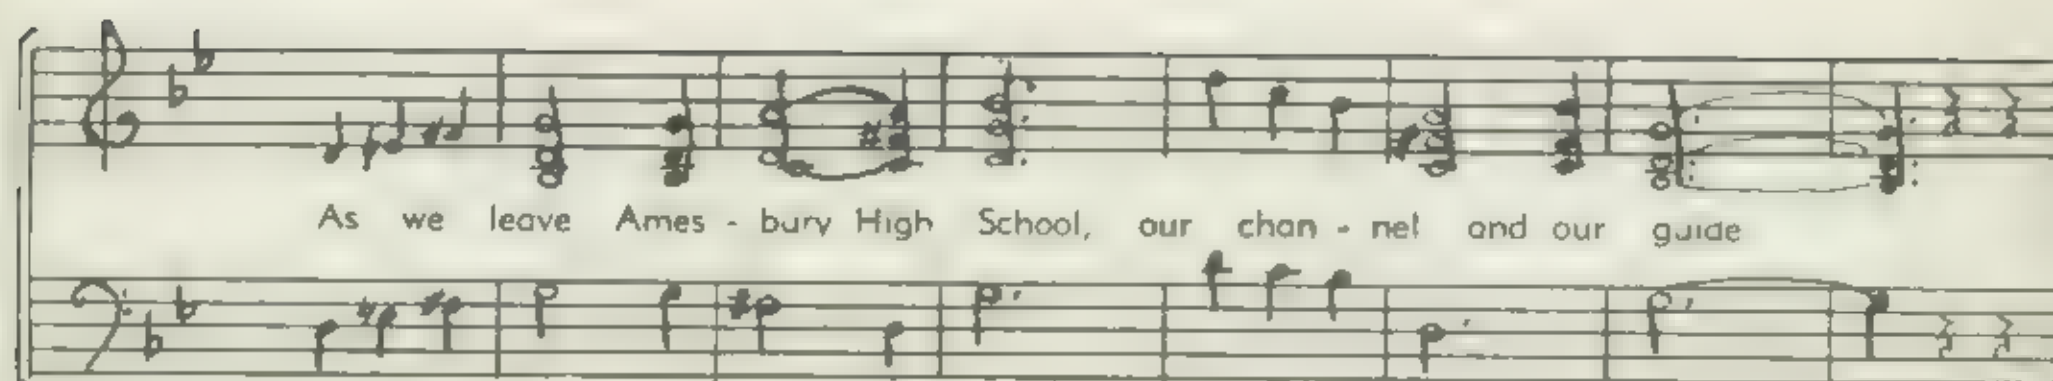

We set out in a small ca - noe to sat - is - fy our yearn - ing

By ra - pids rough, through storm - y waves, we pad - dled hard and fast,

But still we found the gen - tle streams as we were glid - ing past.

Now we have earned our head dress, suc - cess - ful we must be

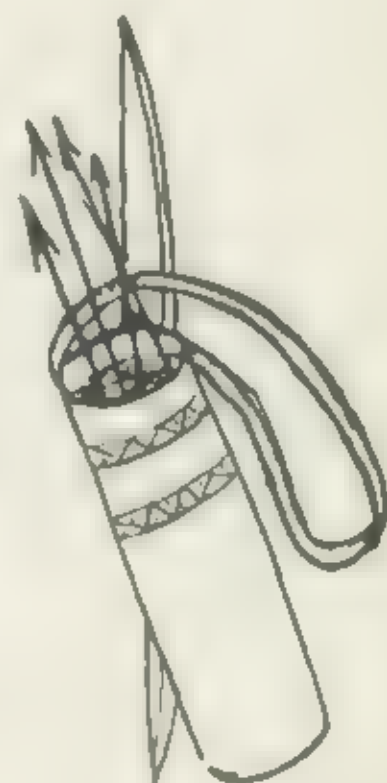

With wam - pum belts full of learn - ing we've reached the open sea

Ode to the Ivy

I would plant this ivy with loving hands,
 Firmly yet tenderly, that its eager strands
 May grasp and protect the thoughts — of students to be,
 Even as the present vine has sheltered mine
 for me
 That in those clinging, climbing leaves,
 Which creep to hide among the eaves,
 There might be held the secrets, hopes, and fears of future generations,
 Their passing dreams, beliefs, ideas, and sudden revelations.
 I would plant this ivy and place in it my trust
 That this vine, as the present vine, will grow upward and must
 Make strong the ideals of those in future years
 Who confide in the ivy their secrets and fears.

Martha Walters

The "Powow Paddlers" first embarked on the river of learning on September 4, 1946. Confused and nervous, we groped our way to the various classrooms and were awed at the important acting people who frequently came in with bulletins. However, we were encouraged by the friendly attitude of our principal, Mr. Donald Oliver.

As we became accustomed to our new school life, we learned that, among other things, we were expected to sponsor an assembly. With the help of Mr. Roy, our head adviser, we planned and produced a talent show.

In February we held our class elections which gave the following results: president — Normand Gonthier; vice-president — Dorothy Bodwell; secretary — Martha Walters; treasurer — Ruth French; member-at-large — Catherine Greaney.

Mr. Melia directed our first dramatic production, "Wonder Child", which proved that we "childish" freshmen were really "wonders"!

At last toward the end of the year it was time to give our Freshman Dance. We decided on a fairyland theme. Blue and yellow streamers, paper flowers, and archways adorned the gym on that wonderfully successful evening of June 6, 1947.

With this happy remembrance of our initial year at A H S we journeyed onward to a welcome summer vacation.

When we began our sophomore year, we found that a new principal, Mr. Charles Bowlby, had taken the place of Mr. Oliver.

Soon we elected officers. Thomas Sullivan became president; Mary Greaney, secretary; and Joanne Bartlett, member-at-large. Dorothy Bodwell and Ruth French held their office of vice-president and treasurer respectively.

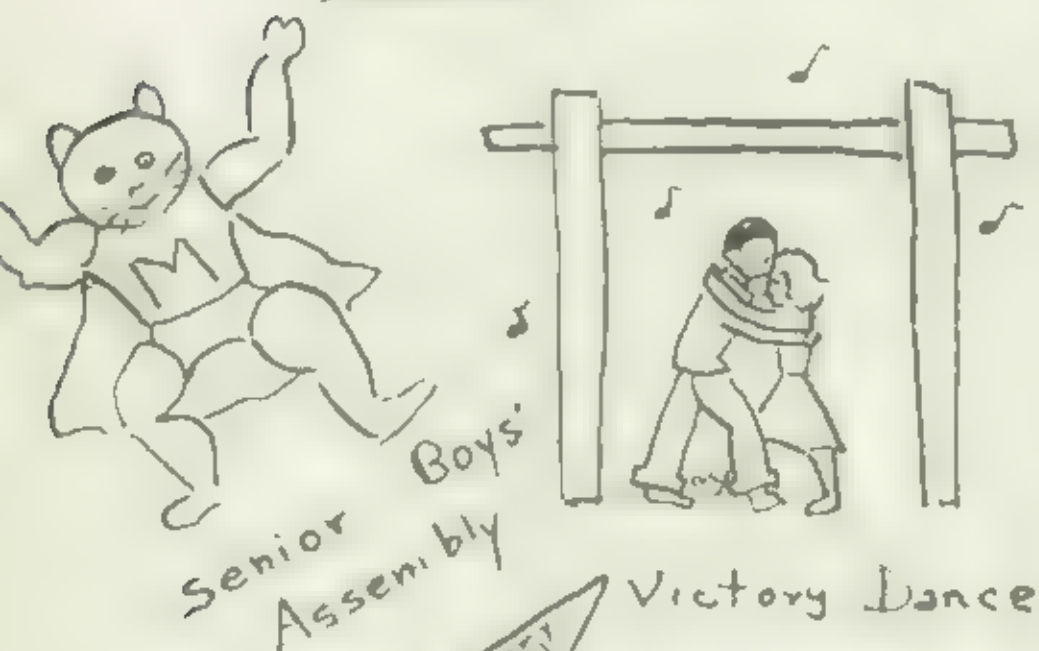

Our Hallowe'en Hop was held on October 24, 1948 in the gym, which was decorated in the customary manner with witches, ghosts, and goblins presiding.

For our sophomore assembly we decided to put on a play, "Elmer," which was directed by Mr. Averill, our head adviser, and presented on May seventh.

We left in June, happy and hopeful that the remaining years would be even better than the first two.

After a happy summer vacation we returned to another year of hard studies on September 9, 1948. Our leaders for our junior year were Alan Girrior, president; Dorothy Bodwell, vice-president; Jeanne Carter, secretary; Ruth French, treasurer; Jo-Anne Bartlett, member at large.

One of the first projects undertaken after elections was the selling of red and white beanies in order to raise money for our class. These were sold at a very appropriate time for we were then planning class floats for the pre-Thanksgiving Day Football Rally. Our class with the Hi-Y Club tied for the prize for the best float.

Wonder child

f the Tribe

With the help of Miss Hirschner, our head advisor, plans were made for a Tea Dance to be held on December 23, 1948. Because this one was such a success, another was planned for January 18, 1949. A juke box supplied the music for both affairs.

As it was the duty of every class to present an assembly, we thought that a change from the usual skits would be appreciated. Therefore, we presented the motion picture, "A Tale of Two Cities."

There were two more important events to plan for now. These were "Junior Night" and the "Junior Prom." Miss Hirschner and Miss Thomas were the directors of the two plays that were chosen for Junior Night, "The King's English" and "A Ghostly Evening."

Finally, the time came for the all important event of the year, our Junior Prom. We had a Hawaiian setting as the theme of our decorations. The Prom was held on May 20, 1949, with Horace Mac's orchestra supplying the music for an appreciative group of dancers.

At the track meet that year our boys outdid themselves and brought glory to the class of '50 by winning every prize.

Again in June we left A. H. S. for another vacation.

As September 7, 1949, rolled around, most of the old familiar faces were seen in rooms 14 or 15, but again we had a new principal, Mr. Walter Scott.

We wanted to make this last year at Amesbury High one of particular importance, as it would stand out most in our minds a few years from now. We elected Roland Bodwell as president, Janet McPortland as vice-president, Barbara Carter, secretary, Ruth French as treasurer and Jo-Anne Bartlett as member at large.

As a starter we sold red and white pennants and banners.

Our first social affair was the Senior Victory Dance held on November 25, 1949. This dance was appropriately named as we had won over Newburyport again with a score of 57 to 18. Horace Mac supplied the music for the dance.

The senior boys put on their own assembly on December 1. John "The Laugh" Babine, Phil, "The Monster" Michaud and many other senior boys made it a long to be remembered assembly.

On February 10 and 11 we presented the "Barretts of Wimpole Street" under Miss Hirschner's direction. The play brought out a great deal of hidden talent in some members of our class. Every member of the cast helped to make the play the success that it was.

On May 5 we put on our farewell dance. Horace Mac again provided the music.

At sing-out our class of seniors marched down the aisle, a little wistful perhaps, because this was their last time to assemble with the other students at AHS. After a few last good byes, we, the class of 1950, went out into the wide, wide world.

Tomorrow's Tomorrow

It was a rare day in June and Paul Gilday, president of the Lowell Textile Company, was sitting in a well-worn swivel chair with his well-worn feet propped upon his well-worn desk when there was an abrupt knock at the door. Hastily swallowing an aspirin and gulping down a bottle of coke, Gilday hiccupped, "Come in." The door opened and there, trim and natty in her Western Union suit, stood Lorraine Landry. Expecting a personal wire from Princess Yasmin, his latest heart throb, Gilday was sadly disappointed upon opening the telegram which bore the following message:

"Warehouses broken into — stop — looted — stop — and burned — stop — hurry here at once — don't stop."

Richard Morse

Head of N. Y. office of Lowell Textile Company

Gilday received this letter with mixed emotions. For ten years he and his associate, Dick Morse, had built this textile business to immense heights. He immediately called his private secretary, Dorothy Dollen, and instructed her to send this message to his partner.

"On my way by private plane immediately. Call Babine, Doherty and Girroir Detective Agency into the case."

Gilday hurried to his plane piloted by John Henry, who had already served seven years with the Navy.

In New York Morse started to take action. He summoned his secretary, Kathleen Savage, to call Joan Crossman's, Joan Hsley's and Joanne Bartlett's Deluxe Fashion Shop whose motto was, "Keep up with the Joans." Since Gilday's firm supplied their fashion shop with material, they must be informed that shipments would be stopped for a while.

The phone was answered by their sales manager, Dan Ryan, who informed Morse that all three bosses were at the airport to meet their distinguished guests, who were world famed society people.

Meanwhile at the airport Theresa Wilson, noted author of "A Spree Grows in Newburyport," Madame Helen Ouellette, inventor of the underwater state pen, Dorothy Polletta, Senator from Hawaii, and Barbara Faulkingham Vanderbilt had just arrived and were busily engaged in conversation with the air hostess, June LeMaire. They were joined by the three fashion designers and were soon seated in an orange taxi driven by the skillful hands of Alotta Lentell. Safe and unharmed, believe it or not, they arrived downtown at the Fly Speck Hotel owned by Hanley and McGloin.

In the uptown office of Robert Zeltzer, nationally known psychologist, his secretary, Dorothy Tilbury, had just admitted a weird looking patient who rushed into the room and started confessing his mania for starting warehouse fires. Then realizing what he had said, he immediately rushed into another sitting room where Janet Violette, Zeltzer's other secretary, was sitting placidly crocheting. Seeing her, he stumbled down the corridor followed by Zeltzer, who was running at top speed. Seeing him enter the Deluxe Fashion Shop and knowing about the recent warehouse fires, he called Morse and told him of his experience. Immediately Morse summoned his detectives, telling them to get over to the fashion shop on the double.

At the fashion shop a style show had just started. Barbara Carter, Juliette Bergeron, and Muriel Vermette led the parade, wearing the latest creations of celluloid hoop skirt dresses designed by Nelson Smith. Next in line were Norann Terrio and Kay Greaney modeling the latest petticoats designed by Ruth French, noted interior decorator. Gretchen Brown, Mary Stevenson and Norma Russell followed wearing the new daring three piece bathing suit.

Two Social Editors from rival newspapers, Jane Corliss and Helen O'Neil, were observing the novel creations. During their conversation, they commented on some of the famous people present, such as Roland Bodwell, Governor of New York, accompanied by his attractive wife. Famous violinist, Carol Tuxbury, with her equally famous accompanist, Elsie Sousa, seemed to be in animated conversation with Martha Walters and Marlene Groetz, well known novelists.

Philip Michaud and Edwin Meserve, auto manufacturers, utterly bored with the show started to leave just in time to bump into our three detectives who were entering the lobby. To the great disturbance of the large gathering, Babine, Doherty and Girroir walked up and down the aisles looking for the suspicious character Zeltzer had reported. Suddenly a man sprang out of his seat, dashed up the aisle and made a beeline for the street followed in close pursuit by the detectives

The chase made its way up New York's Fifth Avenue, knocking over Bill Boyle's peanut cart and shoving Raymond Roy, an organ grinder, and his monkey out into the street. Officers Carl Fowler and William Leslie joined the chase. In the confusion of the chase through the crowded streets, the pursuers were separated. Each went in a different direction thinking he was still chasing the firebug.

Detective Babine finally ended his pursuit in the City Hospital. Haphazardly he burst into the women's ward creating such a disturbance that nurses Ruth Bernabei, Anne Blais, June Brideau, Eleanor Norling and Jeanne Carter descended on him with such vehement words and baleful looks that he dashed out in terror, only to run into the hospital secretary, Sally Barnard.

As Girroir was running along he heard the tinkle of a bell and looking up, saw Ellie Eaton bearing a sign which said, "Contribute to the Proposed A.H.S. Gym." Hastily dropping a Canadian penny into her outstretched palm, Girroir rushed on. He soon found himself upon the stage where Normand Gonthier's play "Havoc" was in the midst of a torrid love scene played by Kay O'Brien and Gene Terry. Two excited stage hands, Floyd Ashe and Herbert Fish, rushed onto the stage and angrily ushered Girroir out.

Officer Fowler finished his futile chase at a big athletic testimonial banquet where Mike Lago, stalwart coach of Michigan, was giving a few appropriate remarks. Robert Keefe and Mike Polletta, stickers of the New York Rangers, plus Tom Sullivan, hard hitting major league baseball player, William Levesque and John Lewis, champion bowlers, Weary Gould, professional football player, who holds down the left side of the Green Bay Packers, and Richard Blaisdell, star forward of the Celtics, were additional speakers for the evening.

Officer Leslie stampeded into a nearby lecture hall just as Professor Emery Eaton was closing his address on the merits of Harvard University. Vacationing teacher, Dorothy Morrill, was an interested listener.

Of the pursuers Doherty was the only one who kept up the chase. He was determined to bring his man in, whatever the circumstances. He followed him up and down the side streets, in and out of subways, always just behind, never catching up, but still pursuing. The chase dragged on from minutes, to hours, to days, and finally weeks. One day while in hot pursuit after the maniac, Doherty saw him disappear into the crowds of a huge county fair.

The two top men operating the fair, Henry Gamelin and Robert Gaudet, agreed to cooperate with Doherty in finding the maniac. Incidentally, the fair featured some top notch performers: Connie Gilmore, acrobat and singer; Claire Kelley, top dancer; John Meeks, the strong man; and the afternoon feature was a midget auto race made even more exciting by the two famous daredevils, Bob Dransfield and Leo Joubert, the "Big Wheel." At night a cow girl roping and riding contest was scheduled, featuring such stellar performers as Shirley Peterson, Margie Loiselle and Leola Allard. It was three that afternoon when the winners of the ladies' baking contest were announced over the loudspeaker. The best cake prize went to Dorothy Bodwell. For the best pie, Joan Sadowski; relishes, Barbara Sanborn; knitting, Claire Hamel; sewing, Shirley Bryant. At another part of the fair Edmond Belanger walked off with the prize winning heifer while Richard Dickens had the best looking Rhode Island Red hen.

Out front on the midway at the "Test Your Strength" machine, Albert Ouellette was giving a cigar to Mary Baxter who had just rung the bell. It was here that Jack Connor, meat cutter at Connor's Super Market, ran into Al and they began to talk of old times and what some of their classmates were doing. Raymond Ouellette, a travelling salesman, is out West. Norman Bourgeois owns and operates Alec's Soda Shop. Janet McPortland and Mary Carroll are co-owners of a stable and have a filly entered in this year's Kentucky Derby. Diane Miner and Laura Perusse are enjoying enormous success in the restaurant business. Marion Belanger and Marilyn Rogers operate a Beauty Shop. A new clothing and cosmetic shop has been opened by Irene LaFlamme. Robert Cote is manager of a new open air theater that has recently started in Amesbury. Mary Malone and Mary Greaney have just made the headlines again as members of the Elizabeth H. Whittier Club. Mary Cady, Arlene Doherty and Patricia Berry are telephone operators. Huge profits have been taken in by Laurel Dickens, gas station attendant, selling Ipso gas.

And Doherty still pursues the maniac. Maniacs, madness, bombs and bluster. Shall mankind overcome these? . . . Ah! for the gift of prophecy.

The Tribe Bequeaths . . .

Be it remembered that we, the class of 1950 of Amesbury High, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by us at any time heretofore made

After the payment of our just debts and funeral charges, we bequeath and devise as follows:

Mike Polletta leaves one (Italian) meatball to Jim Singleton.

Fron Malone leaves a can of her jokes to Mr. Fenn to enliven chemistry classes.

William Boyle and Buster Ouellette leave their Newburyport telephone numbers to Leslie Carter

Sally Barnard leaves a march and a coil spring to Bobby Gleed

No, girls, we're not leaving Gene Terry. Anne Blais is taking him with her

This bag of hot air is left by Robert Zeltzer for Freeman Butland to use in his trombone

Helen O'Neil leaves her reserved manner to Pat Rayno.

Joanne Bartlett leaves a bottle of Breck to Virginia Shattler

Weary Gould leaves his everlasting effervescence to Henry Ploude

This key is left by Jane Corliss to the prospective 1951 editor-in-chief of the Yearbook. It will open the door to the headache closet

Edwin Meserve leaves the bass drum and a stepladder to Norman Parker.

Elsie Sousa leaves her unfinished lunches to any ravenous soul

"Pete" Meeks leaves his insomnia pills to the English classes.

Robert Gaudet leaves his camera and shy personality to Teddy Bailey

Robert Keefe leaves his Irish blue eyes to Clovis Proulx

Roland Bodwell leaves his gavel to Eddie Roy.

Carol Tuxbury leaves Jimmy Roy a big kiss

Dorothy Dollen leaves her efficiency to Barbara Gould

Kay O'Brien thinks Ronald English needs her acting talents and leaves them to him with her regards.

Janet Violette won't leave anything. She says Drewie needs it all

Gretchen Brown leaves the corner outside 14 to Anita and Moe.

John Babine leaves his maniacal laugh to Ronald Pierce.

Dorothy Tilbury leaves her nose to Janet Ferrick.

Martha Walters leaves her big brown eyes to Margie LaRocca

Connie Gilmore leaves her favorite book "The Art of Chewing Gum Without Being Caught" to the library for the benefit of Mr. Roy's pupils.

Ruthie French leaves her temper to Joy Roberts for use when she needs it

Thomas Sullivan leaves Helen O'Donnell to anyone who dares

Emery Eaton leaves his quiet scholarly air to Myron Cohen.

Shirley Peterson leaves her muscles to Chickie DesBolsbriand

Mike Lago leaves his bashful ways to Jackie Murphy.

Gene Terry leaves his romantic temperament to David Hunt

Paul Gilday leaves his alibis on file in the office.

Barbara Carter leaves her dazzling smile and Ammident to Tootsie Allard

Margie Loiselle leaves the Lake Attitash Bus Service to Mary Woodsom.

Joan Crossman leaves her anti-histamine to Connie MacDonald

Normand Gonthier leaves his position as the admired monitor to Larry Moran.

The class leaves Mr. Mellia to his unsuspecting future pupils.

In case Tommy Thomas meets a tall girl, Alotta Lentell leaves him her elevated shoes

John Connor leaves his billiard cue to Jackie Farmer.

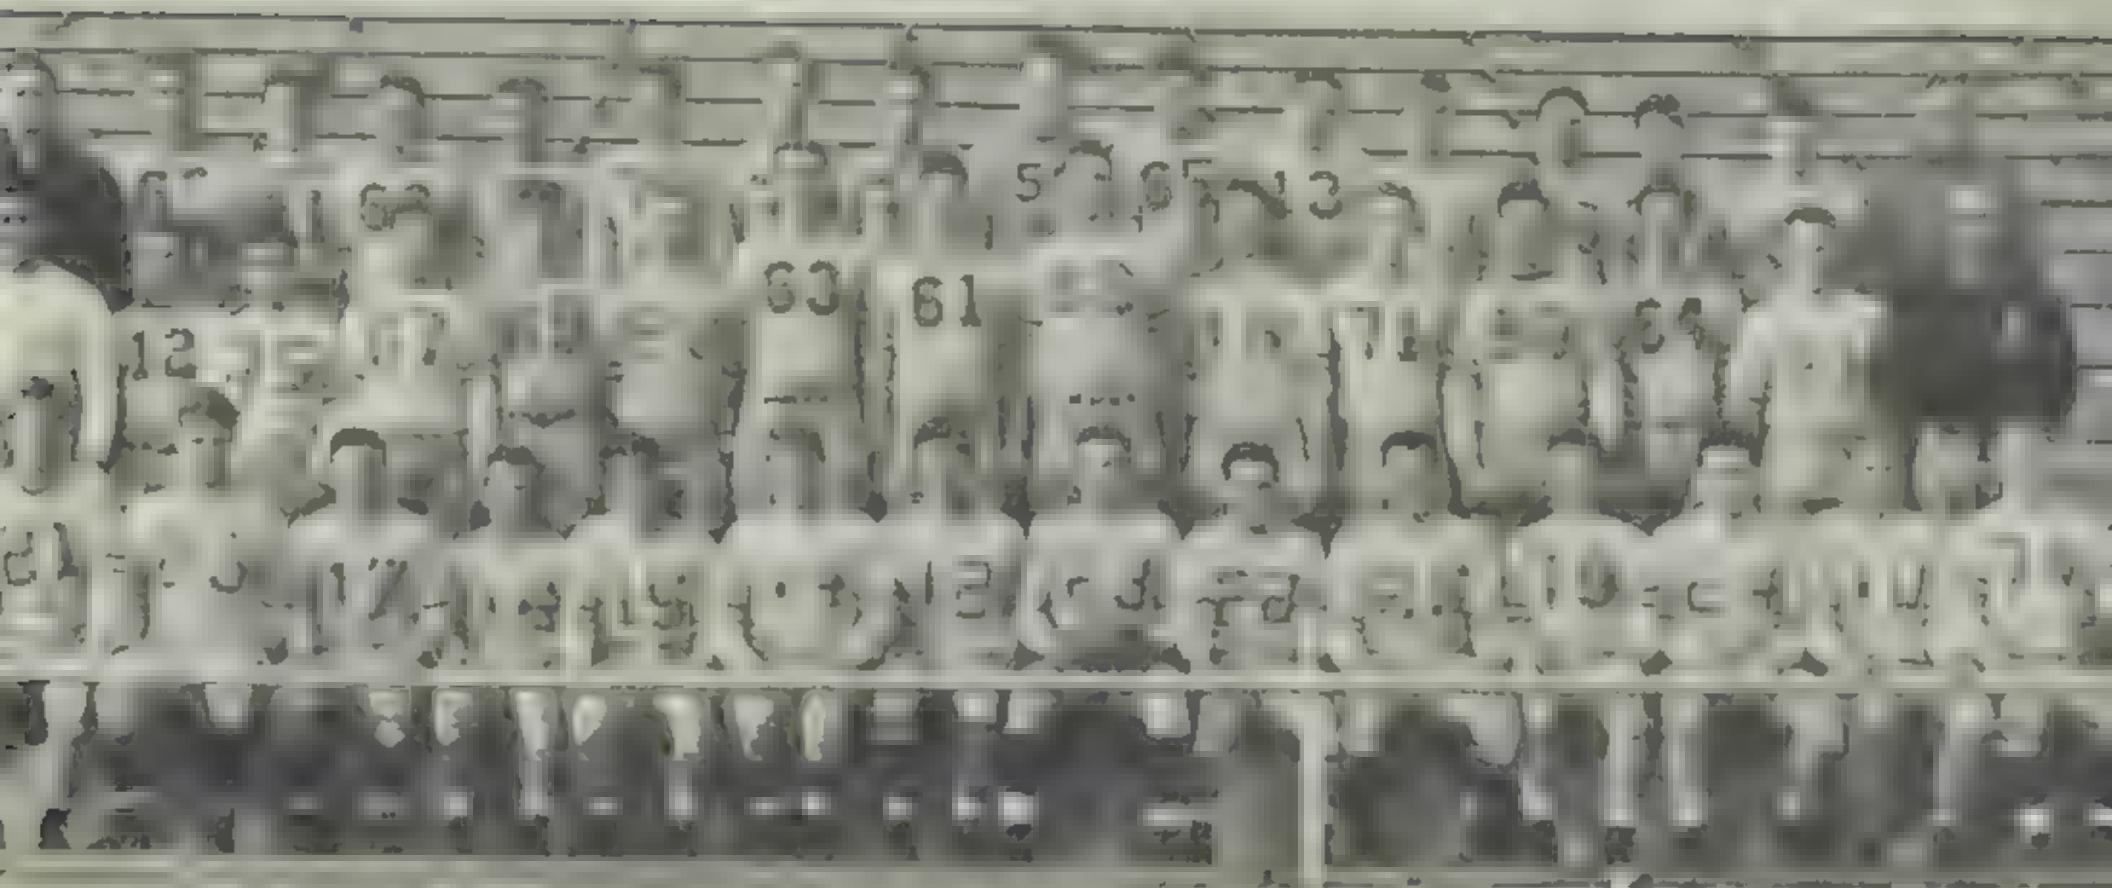

Leola Allard leaves her mystic powers of digging up gossip to Evie Santosuasso

The Senior English A section with best wishes leaves Mr. Woodwell, a champion among tennis players, this pair of white shorts with the embroidered tomahawk.

In witness thereof we do hereby subscribe our names, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

The Tribal Battlefield

Displaying the best "opening game" form of any Amesbury High team to be produced in recent years, the Red and White gridiron representatives opened their forty-nine campaign with a 21-0 victory over an out-played, and out-classed team from Andover. Amesbury scored touchdowns in the first, second, and fourth periods. T. D.'s were made by Keefe, Sullivan and Moran respectively. Captain Mike Logo kicked all three goals.

Amesbury was superior in many respects on paper, but failed to score against Herm Hussey's powerful Marblehead team. Amesbury had 8 first downs; Marblehead only 2. Amesbury gained 123 yards from scrimmage; Marblehead gained 70. Amesbury completed exactly 50% of its forward passes, five out of ten attempted; Marblehead was able to complete six forwards of fourteen attempted. Some fancy ball handling by the magicians reaching into their bag of tricks caused the defeat of Amesbury High.

Showing improvement in several departments, Amesbury High School won a 7-6 thriller-diller victory over a veteran Winthrop High eleven. The biggest thrill came when Amesbury held Winthrop for four solid line bucks in their most earnest attempt to score their second T. D. It wasn't until the final quarter that Amesbury got rolling and behind some beautiful blocking Keefe skirted right end for our touchdown. Buxton kicked the winning point.

The local eleven dropped one of its most important conference games when they lost to Saugus High by the score of 27-0. The Nicolo brothers, Sardi and Richie, provided most of the offensive work against Coach Tassinari's terriers. Amesbury fought valiantly, but in the final period when Tass saw the contest hopelessly lost, and with an eye for future games, he used many members of the second squad in his lineup.

The Pow-wow Indians scalped Searles High of Methuen by the score of 27-0. We displayed our superiority in showing our ability to gain on the ground, by chalking up a net yardage in excess of 300 yards during the four periods. We also demonstrated a marked improvement in our defensive plays. At the start of the third period Tass inserted most of his second string. These boys made an excellent showing. In the final period a pass from Moran to Gautreau, who was standing in the end zone, clinched the final score. Touchdowns were made by Sullivan, Gautreau, Drew and Carey while Buxton kicked 3 out of 4.

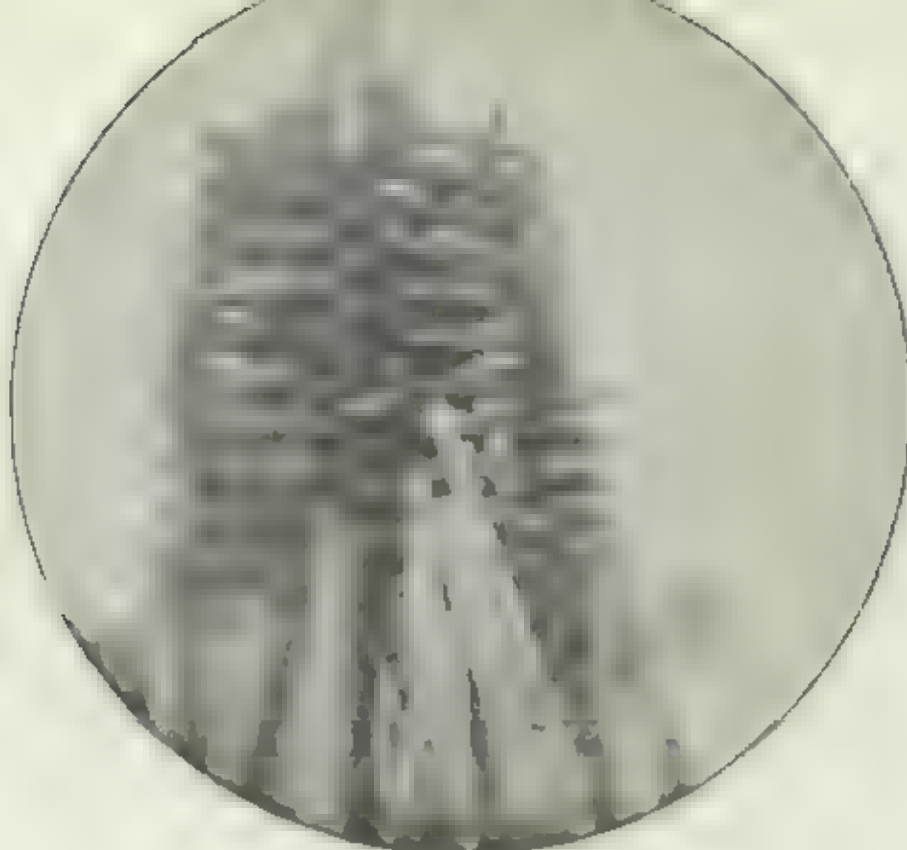

The Indians racked up one of their more prominent victories defeating Swampscott High by the score of 20-0. The Sculpins were outclassed in all departments by a strong and cagey Amesbury team. We registered 11 first downs while Swampscott was credited with but 4. We also had a net yardage rushing of 198 yards while the visiting eleven's net yardage was but 17. In the air Amesbury completed 3 out of its 9 attempted passes while Swampscott scored only 3 out of 16 tries. Sullivan and Moran were the scorers for Amesbury while Buxton converted 2 out of 3.

The Indians easily defeated an injury-riddled Portsmouth High team by the score of 21-0. Looking to the future, Tass inserted all forty members of the A. H. S. squad. The story of the game is best portrayed by statistics. Amesbury made 15 first downs, while Portsmouth made but 2. The Red and Gray clad team amassed a total of 232 yards by rushing, while the Clippers of Portsmouth gained but 36 yards. Amesbury attempted 4 forward passes and completed 2, one for a touchdown; Portsmouth attempted 3 forwards none of which were completed. T. D.'s were made by Sullivan and Brochu. Buxton kicked 3.

The gridsters of A. H. S. were definitely outclassed by Gloucester High, one of the best high school teams in the state. We were downed by the score of 32-6. The Messrs. Lucido and Nicastro were the outstanding representatives for the Fishermen. Amesbury's one and only T. D. came in the third period, when the "Pony" backfield with Porky May appearing in the starring role, began a goalward march that ended with May's going over for the score.

Amesbury High and a strong Danvers team battled to a 0-0 tie. Although the visiting eleven outplayed our local boys, the Onion Towners were unable to cross the goal line for a score. In the final period Danvers tried a field goal but was unsuccessful, and at the sound of the final gun the score still stood at 0-0.

We did it again! The Pow-wow Indians trampled the Clippers by the embarrassing score of 51-18 in the traditional Turkey Day Game. Our backs and linemen played the best game of their careers and have a right to be proud. Keefe drew first blood by scooting 66 yards on the second play in the first quarter. After this the Joppa boys must have lost faith, because Tassinari's Terriers went crazy. We completed forward passes, intercepted passes, made 40 to 50 yard gains, racked up touchdowns right and left and turned in points galore. Nobody expected anything like a 51-18 rout, not even the most optimistic Hat-Towner. In this game honorable mention should go to all members of the Amesbury High squad and not to any one person. Amesbury's present record now stands at 13 wins against Newburyport's 9 and with 6 tie games. The A. H. S. points total 370 against 242 for N. H. S.

AMESBURY vs. DANVERS

The Amesbury High quintet clung to a seven point half-time lead and ultimately downed Danvers High 41-38. The Red and Gray crew got off to an early start and were ahead at the half 26-19. The fourth period proved too much for the Onion Towners, and Amesbury went out in front to win over a strong Danvers quintet.

Amesbury High's basketekers assured themselves of fourth place in the Northeastern Conference race, when they downed Danvers High 60-41. Once again Captain Tom Sullivan, netting 16 points, took high scoring honors. Amesbury High bullied its way out in front to win by the overwhelming score of 60-41.

AMESBURY vs. WINTHROP

The winning streak of the Amesbury High basketball team came to a sudden halt when the Amesbury five lost to Winthrop by a score of 50-35. Bernetein, playing for Winthrop, spelled defeat for Amesbury when he caged 12 points. Sullivan and English paced the Indians, but, even so, they could not match the strong Winthrop club and Amesbury lost 50-35.

In the second contest, Amesbury High's basketekers were crushed by Winthrop 68-52. Winthrop submerged the Red and Gray under a 15 point barrage in the opening period and racked up a surprising half-time advantage of 42-15. In the third and fourth stanza, they pushed way out in front and went on to win by a wide margin.

AMESBURY vs. MARBLEHEAD

With Captain Tom Sullivan and Joe Kardek combining for 25 points, our boys played their best game of the season, nearly jolting Marblehead out of first place before losing to the headers 50-46. Actually, the game was won on the foul line, with Marblehead making good on ten free throws. In the second game, the Marbleheaders leaped out to an early 10-7 first period lead and kept up a steady barrage of baskets to give Amesbury one of its worst lickings. At the half, the Headers were out in front by the score of 29-17, and in the 3rd and 4th stages the Indians were held to 13 and 8 points respectively. The Magicians pulled more than double that out of their hat.

AMESBURY vs. NEWBURYPORT

Friday, the thirteenth, proved no jinx to the Amesbury High hoopsters. The Indians defeated their arch rivals, the Newburyport Clippers, 25-22. At the half-time, Amesbury trailed 12-9. We fought back in the third and final periods paced by Sullivan and English to put Amesbury out in front 25-22. In the second game with Newburyport, the Amesbury quintet once more downed their rivals, this time by a score of 49-37. The Joppa boys led 18-17 at the half-time, but the Indians piled up 20 points, with English personally accounting for 10 of them during the second half. It was Amesbury all the way, never with less than a 10 point lead.

AMESBURY vs. SAUGUS

It wasn't even a contest as Amesbury High's basketball squad racked up its second Northeastern Conference victory by pounding a weak Saugus High 55-21. Saugus jumped into an early 9 point lead, but the Red and Gray came along fast and went on to win by an overwhelming score. In the second game Amesbury High rang down the curtain on its 1950 basketball season by coasting to a 44-33 victory over Saugus. This victory clinched fourth place in the Northeastern Conference for A. H. S.

AMESBURY vs. SWAMPSCOTT

The opening of the Northeastern Conference found Amesbury losing to a strong Swampscott five. Swampscott took advantage of Amesbury's weakness at the foul line, pinning a 34-28 defeat on us. The spark plugs for the Red and Gray were "Buster" Ouellette and "Mugger" McGloin.

Amesbury High had the Swampscott Sculpins on the ropes for three-quarters of its Northeastern Conference tilt. The Indians cooled off in the final period and lost the game 56-47. Amesbury, paced by Ed Roy, led at the half 29-24. The Sculpins went on a scoring spree in the final minute and one half to turn the game into a lop-sided victory.

Amesbury High, making its start in the North Shore hockey league, dropped a 3-1 decision to Swampscott at the North Shore Sports Arena, Lynn. The playing was ragged, but the Indians showed signs of improvements in their following games. The scoring for Swampscott came in the 2nd and 3rd periods while we scored in the 2nd period

The Indians pushed the Lynn English hockey outfit all over the ice in their second start of the season but we had to return home from Lynn with a 1-1 tie. The Red and Gray skaters looked ragged in the first few minutes but after "Red" Joubert pushed one across they showed plenty of renewed spark

We were held to another stalemate in our clash with Lynn Classical. The outcome was a hard fought 2-2 tie. The Indians got rid of the jitters after a shaky start in the 1st period to take a one goal lead which was flipped in by Armand Roy

Amesbury High's hockey sextet and Saugus fought to a scoreless tie which made it the 3rd deadlock in a row for us. Saugus carried the puck 13 times to our goal but in each instance Ray Roy, senior netminder, kept the disc out of scoring position. We experienced difficulty in getting an offensive underway and showed our lack of practice sessions noticeably

The Red and Gray representatives dropped their second league game of the season to the Revere High sextet 1-0 in the closing minutes of the 3rd period. We were outplayed but showed plenty of improvement in our spirited play against a bigger opponent

The Marblehead Magicians downed the A. H. S. puck-chasers by the narrow margin of 3-2. It might have been the 1st victory for the Indians if it had not been for defensive lapses in the closing stanza. The outstanding players of the day were Captain Bob Keefe and "Red" Joubert

Turning in its best performance of the season the A. H. S. hockey team nearly held a strong Beverly High team to a 1-1 tie but a long 25 foot shot by Jack Winer early in the final period gave the Garden City sextet a 2-1 victory over the Indians. Beverly scored first, but the Indians tied the score in a rough second period. Beverly then broke the tie in the aforementioned manner

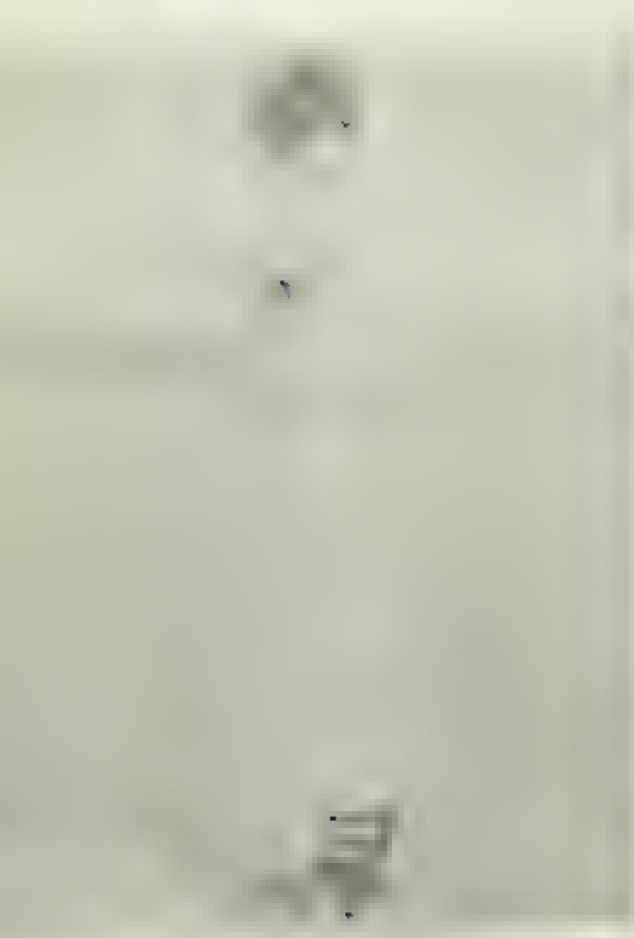

Continuing to show marked improvement, an underdog Amesbury High sextet kept a highly rated Peabody outfit on its toes as the Indians scored a mid-first period goal and then nearly held the Tanners before dropping a 2-1 decision to the Leather City club at Lynn. Andy "Black Jack" Brochu was the starlight of the afternoon performance.

Looking like an outfit playing its 1st game, Amesbury High's hockey sextet missed several scoring opportunities as they fell into a tie for last place in the North Shore Hockey League standings by losing to Salem High 1-0. The only score was made by Salem's Captain Philip Richards. This lone goal came in the 3rd period

As it was expected even by the most optimistic, Gloucester High had little trouble in trouncing the Amesbury Indians 6-0 in a North Shore Conference game. The Fishermen scored twice in each of the periods. Ray Roy, Amesbury goalie, made several spectacular saves and thus kept the tally down to reason. Andy Brochu and Clovis Proulx were the "Big Wigs" for Amesbury

With the A. H. S. Sextet two men short because of penalties, Danvers High slammed in a deadlocking goal midway during the final period and "lit the lamp" with the winning tally in the final minutes of play as the Onlon-towners edged the Amesbury pucksters 2-1 in the final day of scheduled North Shore league play at the Lynn Sports Arena. The Red and Gray ended their first year in the league with an 8 lost, 3 tied record to put them in last place in the northern division

In opening the 1950 Baseball season, Amesbury High had a number of valuable seniors to spark them

This year's captain, Tommy Sullivan, had been a regular for four years. Tom started his baseball career in his freshman year and has occupied left field ever since. His most noteworthy assets are his hitting and agility on the base paths

Bob Keefe had held down a center field position for the past two seasons. Although diminutive in size, Bob is considered one of the fastest runners in the Northeastern Conference. He has an exceptional amount of team spirit

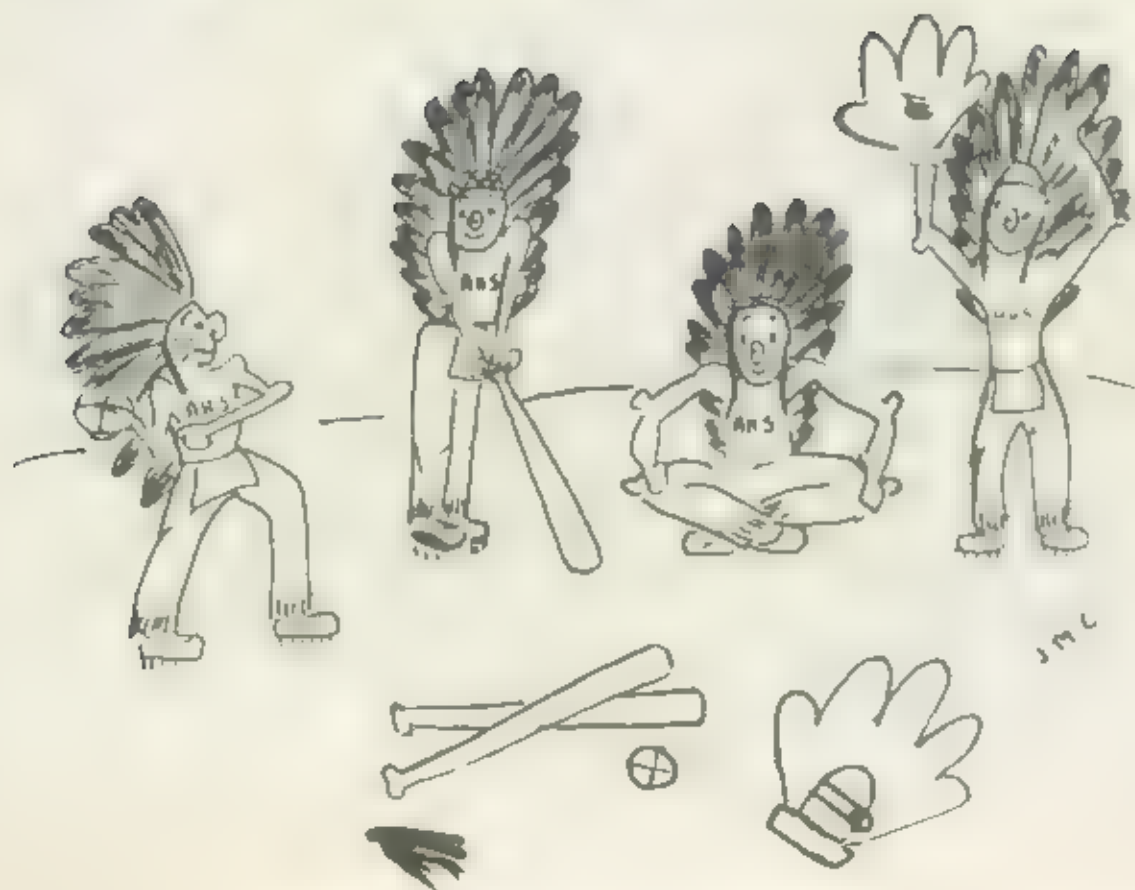

Buster Ouellette, lanky 3rd baseman, has been with the first club for the past two seasons. His consistent hitting is a major asset to the Indians

Tinker Hanley has very capably filled the keystone spot of the infield. His exceptional ability to field anything within reason at second base has earned him the respect of his teammates

Bill Boyle has been a veteran utility man for four seasons. Bill is particularly famous for his clutch-hitting and wonderful team play. Many a game has been pulled out of the fire and saved by his 9th inning hits

Girls' Athletics

The Amesbury High School Girls' Athletic Association, although hampered by the lack of equipment and regular use of the gym, had a very successful program for the year 1949-1950.

In the fall, under the capable leadership of Miss Catherine Bourgeois, the girls had many enjoyable and constructive classes in field hockey. They became familiar with the sport quickly and were able to play very well by the end of the season. Teams were organized and games were played each day. The gym classes also played field hockey.

As the weather became colder and winter set in, thoughts turned to basketball. During the basketball season practice was held in the high school gym every evening because the boys' team had the use of the gym after school. The girls had a really organized team this year. Though no regular games were scheduled they did play a few games with other high school teams. In the two games played with Methuen High, the Amesbury High School Girls lost by very close scores.

An important quality which many of their opponents noticed among the members of the team was the wonderful spirit. Even when the team was losing, the spirit was always high.

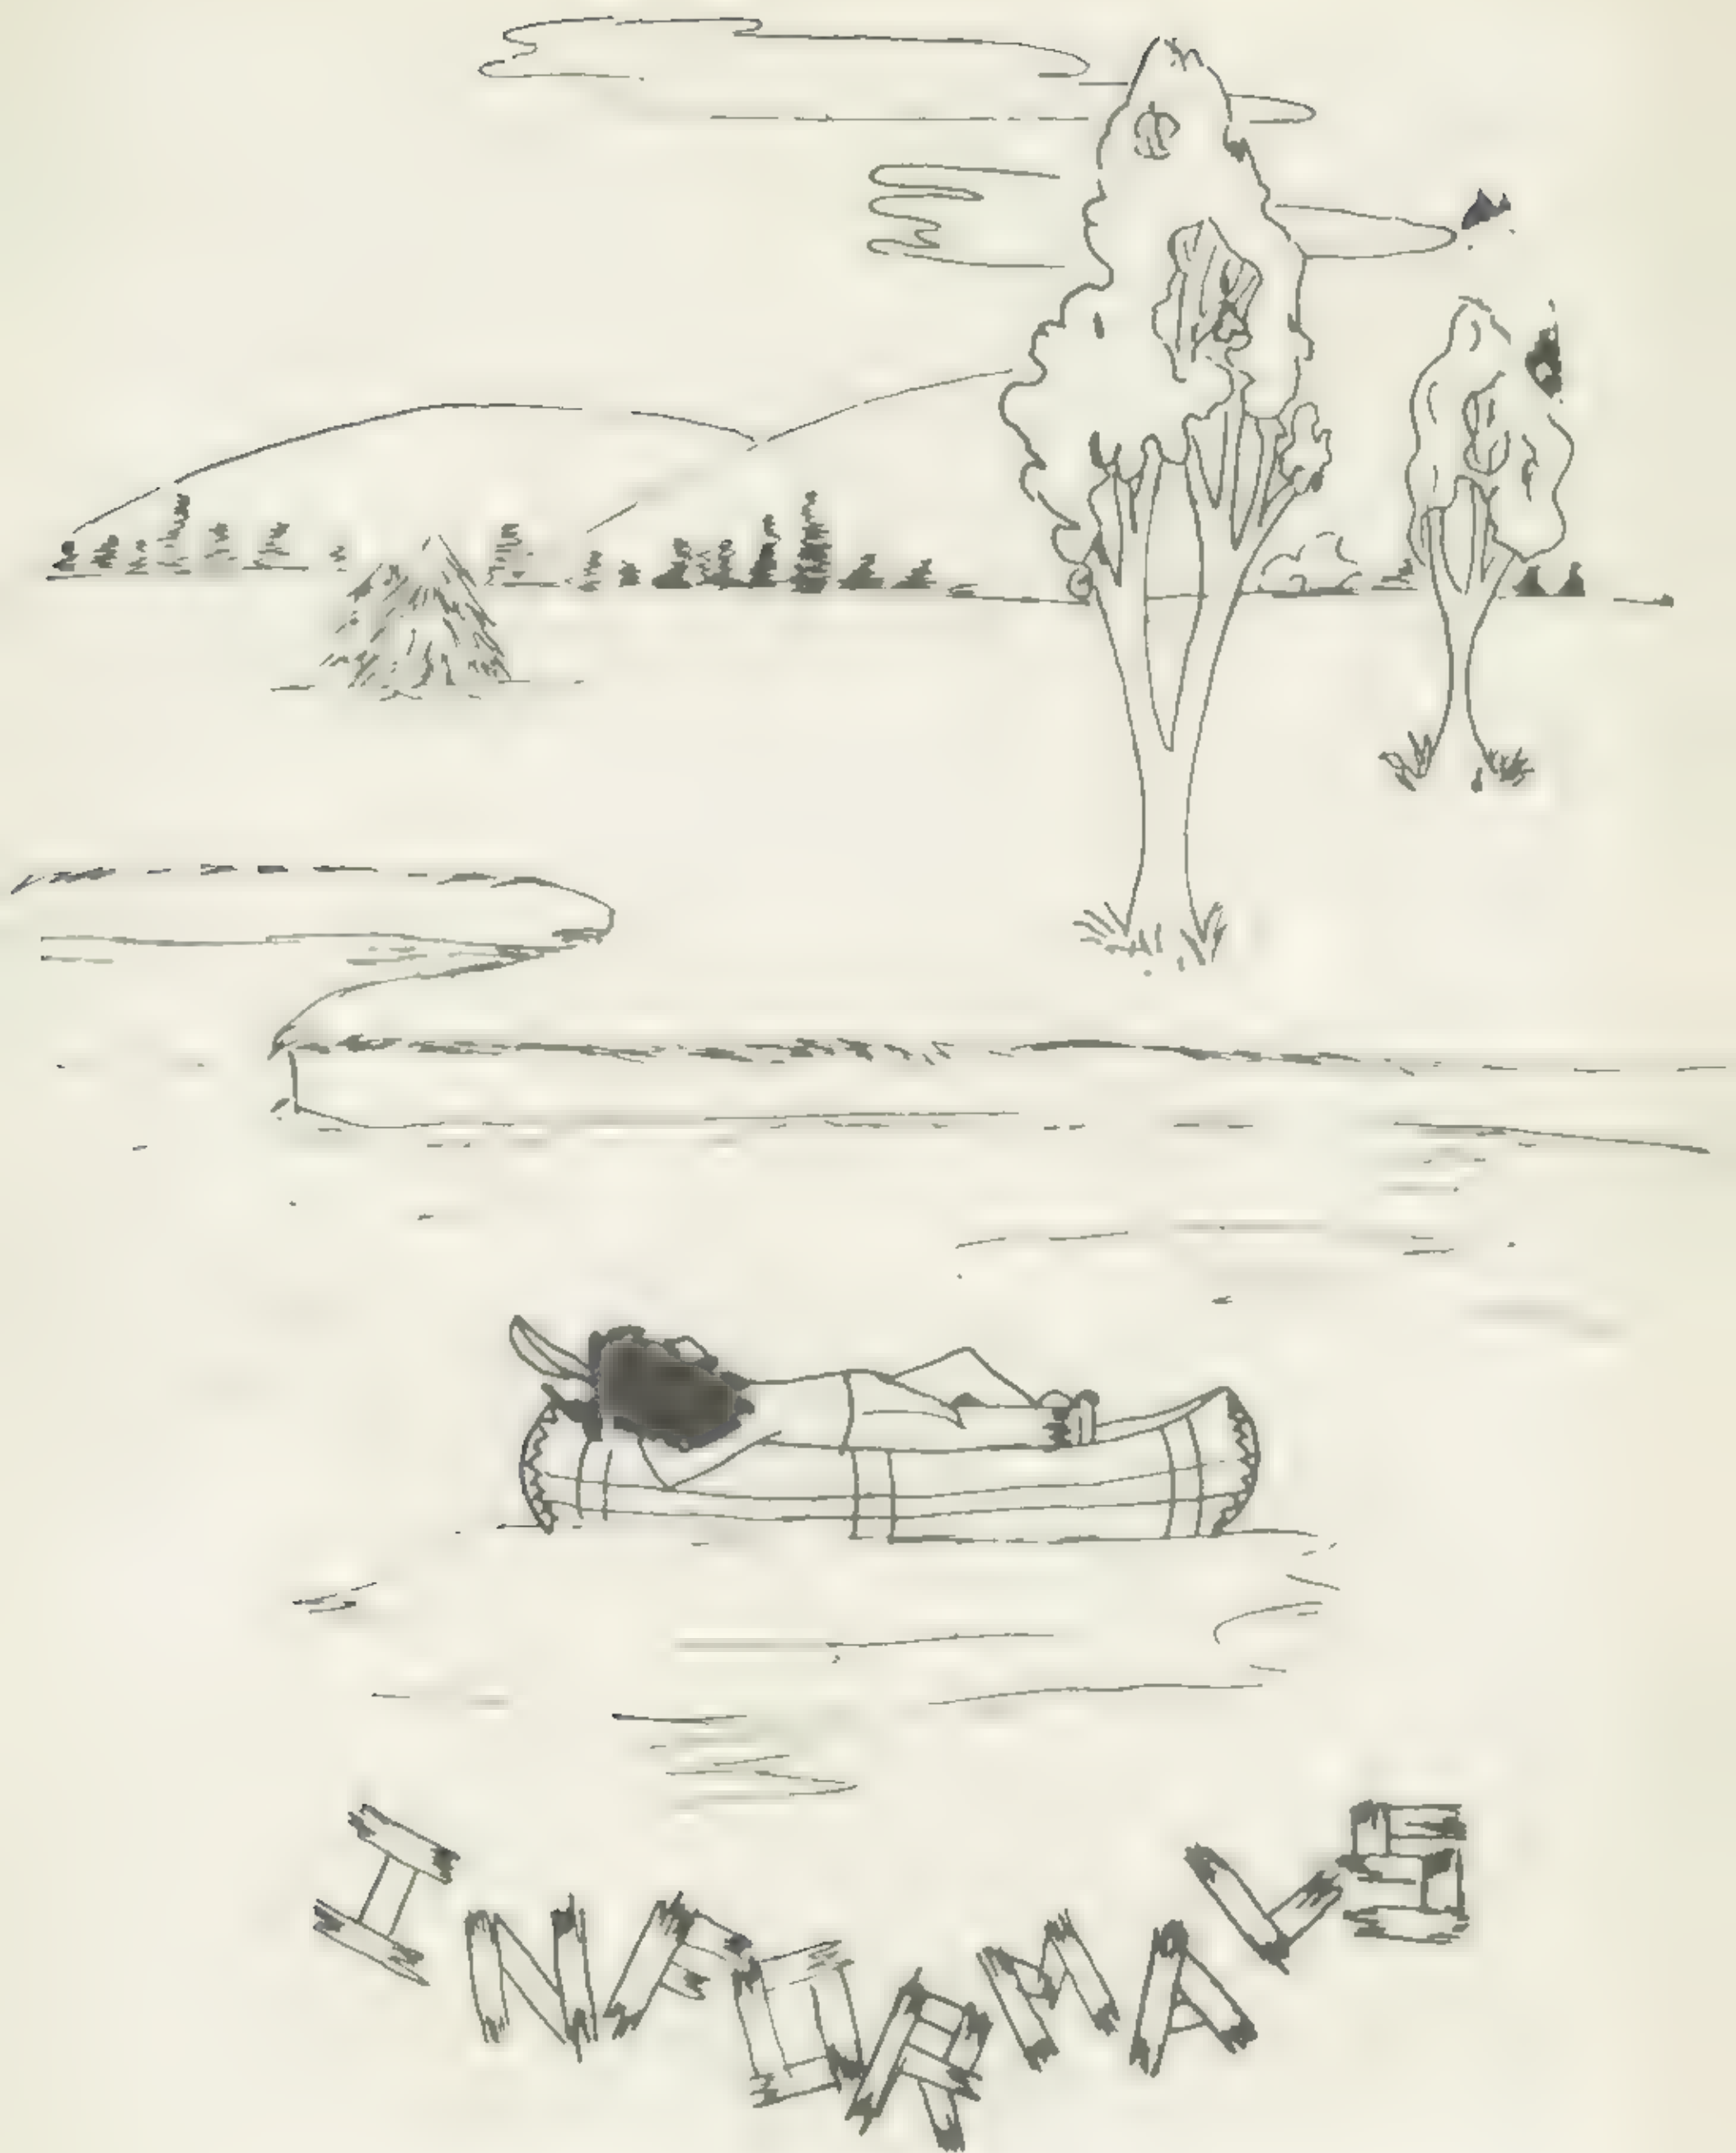

Although the team didn't win very often, the girls were pleased that they finally had a real team and had proved that girls' sports can be successful as a part of the high school program.

In the spring the gym classes played softball daily on the regular baseball diamond, but there were not enough candidates to organize a regular team. Perhaps next year there will be more candidates and the girls will be as successful in softball as they have been in field hockey and basketball.
